

Key Facts
What is a megacity?	A megacity is a very large city with a population of over 10 million people. Lots of megacities are located over in Asian regions as there are far more people who move and need jobs. A rural settlement is a small village, hamlet or farm where there isn't much by the way of shops or services that the people need.
Why do people choose to live in a megacity?	There are many factors that attract people to live in megacities. There are millions of job opportunities, good schools, hospitals, shops and transport (bus, taxi).
What causes the pollution?	Megacities are growing all the time, there are huge amounts of pollution which come from factories, building and transport. Often the sky and air is very hot and smoky looking. This is a result of fumes and pollution in the air.
Did you know?	If you spend a lot of time outside in a big city, blow your nose afterwards. You will often find black or grey particles from the air you have breathed in!
